African American Psychology
A Positive Psychology Perspective
Stacie Craft DeFreitas PhD

This innovative text is the first to examine the contemporary psychological experience of African Americans through the lens of a positive, strengths-based model. It combats the deficit perspective that has permeated the psychological literature about African Americans by focusing on the strengths that have facilitated their growth and resilience—while also considering existing challenges and struggles.

Social Work and Mental Health
Evidence-Based Policy and Practice
Sylvia Mignon MSW, PhD

Clear, comprehensive, and accessible, this book presents the contemporary American mental health system and its impact on clients and social workers. The failure of the system to provide quality care for the mentally ill is explored, including issues and policies that social workers face in accessing mental health care for their clients. It also discusses ways that social workers can improve the functioning of the system and promote the development of policy and practice innovations.

Health Promotion and Aging, 8th Edition
Practical Applications for Health Professionals
David Haber PhD
This acclaimed text promotes healthy aging by demonstrating how health practitioners, program developers, and policymakers can prevent or manage disease and make large-scale improvements toward health and wellness in the older adult population. The eighth edition provides new content on Medicare, Medicaid, Social Security and the ACA; clinical preventive services; global aging; sexual health; saving for retirement; long-term care alternatives; and much more.

Assessment in Rehabilitation and Mental Health Counseling
David R. Strauser PhD
Timothy N. Tansey PhD
Fong Chan PhD, CRC
This graduate-level text on rehabilitation and mental health counseling disseminates foundational knowledge of assessment principles and processes with a focus on clinical application. Written by recognized leaders in rehabilitation and mental health, it is the only book to use the World Health Organization’s International Classification of Disability, Functioning, and Health framework to integrate assessment tools and techniques addressing practice with varied populations and settings.

Introduction to Aging, 2nd Edition
A Positive, Interdisciplinary Approach
Judith A. Sugar PhD
The second edition of this engaging text reflects a welcome new paradigm for aging—that of aging as a positive stage of life. Written for undergraduate and masters-level students, it provides an interdisciplinary perspective on the wide variety of subject areas within gerontology, and combines research with engrossing narratives, new trends, and controversial topics. Substantially updated, the second edition features integrated content on the diversity of the aging population.

New

Applied Social Research, 10th Edition
A Tool for the Human Services
Timothy P. Hilton PhD
Peter R. Fawson PhD
Thomas J. Sullivan PhD
Cornell R. DeJong ABD, MSW
The tenth edition of this classic text demonstrates how research skills are developed and used to facilitate best social work practices and improve client outcomes. New to this edition are additional examples and practitioner profiles demonstrating research-based practice, problem-solving extended vignettes, and broad inclusion of the 2015 CSWE competencies. The tenth edition also delivers directives for incorporating evidence-based practices into daily practice.

Management and Leadership in Social Work
A Competency-Based Approach
Todd W. Rofuth DSW
Julie Piepenbring PhD, LCSW
Full of expert guidance on leadership and management, this unique book is geared specifically to the needs of social work administrators, educators and practitioners in both academic and agency settings. The contents are fully comprehensive and encompass both theoretical approaches to management and leadership plus a wide variety of practical strategies that can be directly applied to practice.

The Elements of Counseling Children and Adolescents, 2nd Edition
Catherine P. Cook-Cottone PhD
Laura M. Anderson PhD
Linda S. Kane MEd, LMHC
This unique, user-friendly text distills essential and up-to-date guidelines for students and practitioners of child and adolescent counseling. Featuring concise, step-by-step protocols supported by evidence-based practice, the book is organized in a logical sequence, from setting the stage for the counseling process to the essentials of active counseling.
New

Elder Justice, Ageism, and Elder Abuse
Lisa Nerenberg MSW, MPH
Delivering the first comprehensive analysis of elder justice and its implications for policy and practice, this book offers a promising approach that ensures the rights, safety, and security of all older Americans. It explains the antecedents of elder justice in the fields of elder abuse, aging, and public health, and describes the opportunities for achieving more comprehensive, cohesive, and integrated public policy.

Grandparenting
Influences on the Dynamics of Family Relationships
Bert Hayslip Jr PhD
Christine A. Fruhauf PhD
This landmark resource investigates and documents current and predicted trends regarding the experiences of grandparents in the United States. Edited by two of the foremost scholars and practitioners on the health and wellbeing of grandparents raising their grandchildren, it reflects the enormous changes in the roles of grandparents during the last several decades and explores the historical and social context in which these changes have occurred.

Marriage and Family Therapy, 2nd Edition
A Practice-Oriented Approach
Linda Metcalf PhD, LPC-S, LMFT-S
This text provides students of family therapy with a unique opportunity to understand and compare the inner workings of 14 traditional and non-traditional family therapy models. The book demonstrates, through innovative “guiding templates,” how the different therapeutic models are applied in an actual family therapy situation.

EMDR Therapy New

Neurobiological Foundations for EMDR Practice, 2nd Edition
Uri Bergmann PhD
The second edition of this groundbreaking work incorporates new neuroscientific and psychological research related to human development, traumatic stress, disorders of attachment, and information processing, and its implications for EMDR practice. The book delivers critical new neurobiological research on procedural and emotional learning, early-acquired relational patterns, inter-corporality, and empathy.
